

I disagree with Michael Powell's proposal to lift the regulations on how many stations one corporation can own. Big Business is already "dictating" the news. We need more public tv, balanced news and non-partisan broadcasting. We need less multi-conglomerate owned stations presenting only one view-point. Enough of that already.